Sequence

Amy went down on her knees and snorted once more.

The people just wanted to see how clever they were.

Then Amy remembered the board he had been fixing to his front gate

Amy had promised to show her mum the hedgehog.

'I'm sure you must be very tired.'

Gloomily, Mr Peck handed over the box to Amy.

Amy shone her torch towards the fence.

'I wish I had known before how useful they are.'

His face went bright red and he made a strange spluttering noise.

She told them to make sure that no more of his vegetables were eaten by slugs.

'I paid a lot of money for that tin.'

Some of the people were still enjoying a cup of tea and biscuits.
