

CHAPTER 32

Public order offences related to sporting events and those connected with industrial disputes

Banning orders made on complaint* p 919

The provision referred to in the last paragraph under this heading ('No application ...') has been repealed. [VCRA 2006, s 52]

TICKET TOUTS p 923

The definition of 'designated football match' has been amended by an order made under the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994, s 166. The order designates association football matches in England and Wales in which one or both participating teams represent a club which is a member of the Football League, Football Association Premier League, Football Conference or League of Wales, or represents a country or territory. It also designates association football matches outside England and Wales involving a national team of England or Wales, or a team representing a club which is a member of a Football League, Football Association Premier League, Football Conference or League of Wales, or matches in competitions or tournaments organised by or under the authority of FIFA or UEFA in which any of such English or Welsh domestic or national teams is eligible to participate or has participated.